

Descending (feat. Ashley Monroe)

Butch Walker

Maybe I'm just scared of landing
Maybe you are too
It's a beautiful misunderstanding
From my point of view Can you feel it now?
The wheels are coming down I just want you to worry about me
Every once in a while
I just need a satellite
To get me by
You can't fake a smile forever
From a mouth that once was mine
Is it over or finally beginning? Descending There is memory that I keep having
And I don't know what it means
We're not falling and we're not flying
We're somewhere in between Can you say it now?
I feel it slowing down. I just want you to worry about me
Every once in a while
I just need a satellite
To get me by
You can't fake a smile forever
From a mouth that once was mine
Is it over or finally beginning? Descending I'm holding steady
Your restless, I'm ready I just want you to worry about me
Every once in a while
I just need a satellite
To get me by
You can't fake a smile forever
From a mouth that once was mine
Is it over or finally beginning? Are we descending?
I'm holding steady
Your restless, I'm ready
I'm holding steady
I'm restless, your ready
I'm holding steady
