

Lost Angeles

Berman

see for yourself and take a look up close take a trip down to the southern coast the roads to rome and the powers that be all point to the angel by the sealost angeles how do you handle this?
you put the stars in my eyes you told me dreams never die but you left me there for deadan industry of no sympathy can "make it happen" in hollywood cliché the end of extortion of epic proportion should only be a lawsuit awaytook a holiday down in l.a. got an agent and now i'm okay got over yesterday, but it's so hard to say wallet's on empty, but that's the price you pay
