Ass Ponys

Poor old john carradine
Before he met his maker
He got to play a part
That stands the test of timeShouting he held aloft
The miracle elixir
The townspeople ran him off
And the sunlight took his eyesIf you ever gave a damn for sunny jim
I'm sure you must remember himFresh out of paper plates
Guess I'll do the dishes
Instead of washing off
Only one plate at a timeBig evening up ahead
Wide array of choices
Bladerunner, robocop,
Or the bride of frankensteinIf you ever gave a damn for sunny jim
I'm sure you must remember himDead soldiers line the road
Along the coffee table
Bladerunner's at the part
Where rutger hauer diesI don't know anything
Why do I pretend to
If I did I'd be the one
Who's living with you nowIf you ever gave a damn for sunny jim
I'm sure you must remember him
