Inside the crypts of eternal death
Hear the screams of a billion souls
Burning in the catacombs
The place of eternal repaymentThose who died without Christ's blood
Who followed the damned, eternal liar
Will burn forever without escape
From the inextinguishable firePrince of the air
What does your evil dare
This very torment was ignited all for youThe burning sensation, feel the torment rumbling
The flames disposal, the end result of sin
Flames burn high, smoke burns the eyes
Join in and cry, scream for you lifeThose who died without Christ's blood
Who followed the damned, eternal liar
Will burn forever without escape
From the inextinguishable fireWho cry for help once in there's no escape
Eternal reward for the life you embracedThe dream of darkness awakes
Enter eternal flames
Tales of old proven before you
Opposing all disbeliefThose who died without Christ's blood
Who followed the damned, eternal liar
Will burn forever without escape
From the inextinguishable fireWhat is eternity that you should lose your soul
Eternal life with Christ or face the second death[Rev. 20:15, Matt 25:31, 25:46, 25:41, Luke 16:23-24, 16:28-29, Mark 8:34-38, 9:1]
