

Just Because

The Last Poets

Just because you're black
Just because you're black
(Justice, peace) You say you don't wanna die because I don't wanna die because
You say you don't wanna die
Because there's no cause to die for
And what would cause you to say that? Is it because you have a good job
And a home in the suburbs?
Or is it because you've been pink and yellow
Causing all the women
To scream from a cause unknown?
Just because you're seemingly satisfied
That's no cause to begin
