

Longsight M13

Ian Brown

Here's your gift wrapped Easter egg
You're scented like a rose
Got so many dreams
I think my head might explode Let the stars shine on until the break of dawn
Let the stars shine on Seen so many happy faces waving back at me
Been so many places even rich don't ever get to see
Got ex-friends in a frenzy, green with envy, jealous eyes
With far to many demons now to ever exorcise Let the stars shine on until the break of dawn
Let the stars shine on and let her move
Move like a queen of longsight M13 You and I, now we are together
Love will fly Love will fly, we will live forever
You don't have to justify Let the stars shine on until the break of dawn
Let the stars shine on and let her move
Move like a queen of longsight M13
