Believe

The Letter Black

Sometimes I feel like I'm alone
Hoping, praying You hear me
I'm screaming inside to ease the pain
Save me, keep me aliveI'm not afraid anymore
Of what I don't knowBelieve (I put my faith) in the unknown
Believe (I put my hope) in God alone
Have faith in what you don't knowSometimes I feel like I have to cry
Until my emotions have run dry
I'm breaking inside to hide the pain
Save me, keep me aliveI'm not afraid anymore
Of what I don't knowBelieve (I put my faith) in the unknown
Believe (I put my hope) in God alone
Have faith in what you don't knowI know you're here
I can feel you now
I know your love embraces meI put my faith, in the unknown
I put my hope in God alone
Believe (I put my faith) in the unknown
Believe (I put my hope) in God alone
Have faith in what you don't knowI put my faith, in the unknown
Give up all your sorrow
Have faith in what you don't know
Believe (I put my hope) in God alone
Have faith in what you don't know
You don't know
