Night

Daniel Spaleniak

Quiet
I'm quiet as the night
Someone switched me off but now I'm back

Move
Take your bag and start to run
There's someone hiding in the dark

Black
There's nothing I can do
Someone grabbed my arm maybe it was you

Why
Why you running here my boy
Come
I will take you to your home

Brave
Take your things and follow me
I cannot follow something I can't see

Sing
I will sing for you instead
To some it's the only thing that can't be dead

Rain
I can feel it on my skin
The drops are falling slowly to my chin

And now I open up my eyes
The dream is changing and I'm not surprised
