The Cake

Lloyd Banks

Money, money, money Cake I need the cake nigga

The Unit don't play, we rap but we strapped
Buck got the shotgun, 50 got the mack
Spida got the sweeper and you bound to hear it clap

You won't have another birthday cake afta that 'Cause Yayo got a temper and he don't know how to act

I've been gone all winter but now a nigga back

To get the money, the money

The money, the money, the cake And you mutha fuckas lookin' like steak

Food on the plate for the wolves, follow wolves

Don't get moved by the tools

Blood will ooze on ya shoes wait, control ya hate

You ain't ridin' in dem 6s

'Cause you spendin' all ya cake on dem bitches

I need the bread lil' niggas need Christmas

Banks don't rap wit a back pack

I'm in it for the money, the money

The money, the money, the cake

You heard Banks said so I know I got the mack

I pull up, pull out spray hollows at your back

I don't give a fuck, it's goin' down like that

I done been through every hood, dead niggas gone rap

In the heart of a victim murda is monumental

I don't complicate shit, yeah I keep it simple

My bullet wounds will tell you a story 'bout wut I been through

Southside trama drama wit' gallamas

I conversate wit' killas, it's usually about life

Politicate wit' lawness, it's usually 'bout white

I'm da poster child of violence, I'm the boy on the poster

When the shots start to rang out I'm the boy wit' the toaster

Yeah, listen up clicko, I hustle I get though

You fuckin' wit a sicko, I spazz let a clip go

Cannon out da rental, beam to ya temple

I squeeze blow your mental, all ova ya friends

Me I'm from the street, where nothin' sweet

The home of the hommies, there's a body every week

Now I don't hear the sirens but they prolly gonna creep Plottin' to pull me ova, put the cake in my jeep So I'll be skippin' cities seven states in aweek Can't a mutha fuckin' breathin' tell me I can't eat Show me the money, the money The money, the money, the cake Niggas slow down, pump ya breaks No mistakes cause the jakes, run the plates Then you headed up state for rollin' 'round wit' a steak Niggas start up the beef and run straight to the cops You a bitch ass nigga, the cupcake of the block Any nigga disrespect the click gettin' shot 'Round here niggas get found upside down Ova the money, the money The money, the money, the cake Cake Money, money, money Cake
