

Boy

Dovetail Joint

Locked in a vacuum chasm
Deaf when the voices chasten
Just killed the greatest thing of all Retain a wealth of knowledge
Sharpen the finest talent
Harbored the greatest thing of all He's just a boy
He's just a boy
Yeah, he's just a boy
Who has grown to find Blank is the brightest canvas
Black is the blush of autumn
Life less the volume of color Light years of wisdom may
Only amount to just a
Second of clairvoyant love He's just a boy
He's just a boy
Yeah, he's just a boy
Who has grown to find He's just a boy
He's just a boy
Yeah, he's just a boy
Who has grown to find No no, no no, no no
No no, no no, no no
Do I have to love? He's just a boy
He's just a boy
Yeah, he's just a boy
Who has grown to find That light-years of wisdom
May only amount to just a
Singular second of clairvoyant emotion to you
