Late In The Evening Blues

Ray Charles

it was late in the evening and the sun was going down i would pray to the good lord to please bring my baby round yes i miss her more than even to me she's the only one i miss her more than ever
she'd be the on that.. when i need a faovr done i hate to hear the raindrops beat against my window pane i hate to hear the randrops beat against my window pane i'm so blue without my baby it's enought to drive old me insane will i ever find my aby she's the one i can't afford to lose will i every find my baby she's the on i can't afford to lose i wake up early in the morning with the late in the evening blues
