You Talk a Good Game

Before Their Eyes

you change the locks but you can't keep us out your lip sync glances are all but useless now you know you act a fool we know exactly who you are don't cover up now

it'll all come back to you and knock you right off your feet
you talk a good game

you spin your wheels but you get nowhere fast step up, grow up, learn to lose with class you shut us out you shut yourself out too we can do this with or without you

and knock you right off your feet

we see right through you and all of your lies we wrote this tune so every one would know

this is the reason of the mess that you've made turn around now cause i've figured your game

you talk a good game
