Daisy

The Sneetches

I picked you up and lifted your wilted frame into the sun.
I was taken back, yeah i was taken back,
and by the time i caught my breath, you had blossomed into something that i did not expect.
and if it takes all night,
I swear i'll wait,
for you,
forever.
sunlight, sunshine,
all for you my daisy.
we're getting this before you leave,
all for you my daisy.
you're a wreck and you know,
you've got me wrapped around your finger,
like a boy tangled in vines,
but I've figured you out.

and now we're here,
we're so confused,
and i wish that there was some way that i could tell you.
and if it takes all night,
I swear I'll wait,
for you,
forever.
sunlight, sunshine,
all for you my daisy.
we're getting this before you leave,
all for you my daisy.
[x3]all for, all for, all for you my daisy
sunlight, sunshine,
all for you my daisy.
we're getting this before you leave,
all for you my daisy
