There's Never Been a Night

Shirley Bassey

There's never been a night (never been a night), a night like this (a night like this)
There's never been a boy (never been a boy), I'd rather kiss
(oh, what a kiss)There's never been a moon so big and bright
There's never been a love that felt so right
There's never been a night (what a night), a night like this
(a night like this)There's never been a thrill, just like your touch
(touch me pretty baby)
There's never been a touch, that thrilled so much
(so much, so much, so much)
There's never been a heart that beats so fast
There's never been a love I care would last
There's never been a night (what a night), a night like this
(a night like this)Now that I've found you
Please don't ever ever ever let me go
Now that I've found you
I want you, I want you to knowThere's not anoher boy (another boy), I'll ever kiss (kiss me baby, baby)
There's not another boy (oh boy), I'll ever miss
(miss me baby, baby)So hold me good and tight, don't go away
And every single night you'll here me say
There's never been a night (never been a night), a night like this
(oh, what a night)
(oh, what a good night, don't go away)
(and ever single night you'll here me say)There's never been a night (never been a night), a night like this
(oh, what a night)
There's never been a night (never been a night), a night like this
(oh, what a night)
There's never been a night (never been a night), a night like this
(oh, what a night)
