Hard Rock Sofa

There lived a certain man in Russia long ago
He was big and strong, in his eyes a flaming glow
Most people looked at him with terror and with fear

But to Moscow chicks he was such a lovely dearHe could preach the Bible like a preacher

Full of ecstacy and fire

But he also was the kind of teacher Women would desireHey hey hey

There was a cat that really was gone

Ra ra Rasputin

It was a shame how he carried on He ruled the Russian land and never mind the Czar

But the Kasachok he danced really wunderbar

In all affairs of state he was the man to please

But he was real great when he had a girl to squeezeFor the Queen he was no wheeler dealer

Though she'd heard the things he'd done

She believed he was a holy healer

Who would heal her sonRa ra Rasputin

There was a cat that really was gone

Ra ra Rasputin

Russia's greatest love machine

It was a shame how he carried on{But when his drinking and lusting and his hunger

For power became known to more and more people

The demands to do something about this outrageous

But the ladies begged "Don't you try to do it, please"
