406

Radolescent

My eyes are open but I cannot see, all of my problems are just sitting there looking at me. Cold and lonely on the 406, warmth of a stranger makes me feel like I, still exist.

Ohh, when you gonna save me, anna
I know my mind is breaking, I,
I'm waiting for and answer I, I just need to know

I pass under, dark shadows, deep thoughts, are lingering in the shallows and I'm running, I'm running away, from here. You keep talking, I'm not listening, all of these, constant contradictions and I'm running, I'm running away from here.

Ohh, when you gonna save me, anna
I know my mind is breaking, I,
It's eating me like cancer I, I just need to know
