Samantha

Drake Bell

Changin in the weather do all your clothes fit better upon the extraordinary deed A picture of you crying, with paints that's never drying Cut so many times in endings that bleed, BabyYou are all you need Hold on Samantha
when you're tired and weary
'Cause it's alright, BabyMemory like a whisper of how he never kissed her, sacrificial games that break open wide (why is it still inside you) Counting smiles you let in,
A bed you never slept in,
Tearing up the sky for someone that died, BabyYou are still alive,
Hold on Samantha
when you're tired and weary
'Cause it's alright babyWell a heart can change the mind but your memory serves you fine,
As you slow dance for the last chance and moan, BabyYou are not alone
Hold on Samantha
when you're tired and weary
'Cause it's alright baby Alright baby! (5x)Well it's alright, Baby!...
