

Go Upstairs

Patrick Doyle

Go upstairs, take off your clothes
I've got something for you tonight
Lit the candles, put down the shades
 Gonna make you feel alright
 Baby, I've been burning up
 Longin' for you within
 It seems like it's been so long
 I couldn't wait to see you again
 You had the longest day
For whatever reason, I, I understand
 So let's kiss and let's hug
 And let's touch like only we can
 Go upstairs, take off your clothes
 I've got something for you tonight
 Lit the candles, put down the shades
 Gonna make you feel alright
 There'll be no interruptions
We've got the whole place to ourselves
And if there's something's on your mind
 Want you to tell me and no one else
 'Cause right now
I wanna be the only person on your mind
 So let's kiss and let's hug
 And let's touch like only we can, baby
 Go upstairs, take off your clothes
 I've got something for you tonight
 Lit the candles, put down the shades
 Gonna make you feel alright
 Go upstairs, take off your clothes
 I've got something for you tonight
 Lit the candles, put down the shades
 Gonna make you feel alright
 'Cause right now
I wanna be the only person on your mind
 So let's kiss and let's hug
 And let's touch like only we can
 Go upstairs, take off your clothes
 I've got something for you tonight
 Lit the candles, put down the shades

Gonna make you feel alright
Go upstairs, take off your clothes
I've got something for you tonight
Lit the candles, put down the shades
Gonna make you feel alright
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Go upstairs, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Go upstairs, take off your clothes
I've got something for you tonight
Lit the candles, put down the shades
Gonna make you feel alright
Go upstairs, take off your clothes
I've got something for you tonight
