

Bury Me

Glass Hands

(Worn as a crown, this broken halo
Come down to meet your children)Continue to just keep the mask on
Before you keep your own word
I'd spend my life on my knees
If you could take this from meEvery time you breathe, you bow your head
You're underneath society
Bury me, and understand why you bow your head
You're underneath society
Bury me, and understand why you bow your head
Bow your headMy own veins as my faith,
Smother me and call this a family
This isn't family.(Come down to meet your children)Keep on following prophecies
In a world of hopeless people with forced beliefs
Keep on following prophecies
In a world of hopeless people with forced beliefs
