Cross My Heart

Everything But the Girl

Now and then
Do you wash your hands of me again?
Wish me anywhere but home
Drunk and on the end of your phoneFrom time to time
Do you guess what's really on my mind?
Guess that "How you're keeping now"
Means "Where are you sleeping now"But of course it's not polite
To ask you "Where you spent last night"
And if I did, you might reply that I have no right
And anyway I'm fine glad that you're no longer mine
If I should tell a lie I'll cross my heart and I hope to dieYou'd be appalled
If you knew what I was doing when you called
Yes, I can see I'm blundering
And I always end up wonderingWill it ever be alright
To ask you where you spent last night
And can it be polite the way we never write
'Cause I don't have the time and anyway I'm fine
If I should tell a lie I'll cross my heart and I hope to dieOh, I know it's not polite
To ask you "Where you spent last night"
And if I did, you might reply that I have no right
And anyway I'm fine that you're no longer mine
If I should tell a lie I'll cross my heart and I hope to die
I hope we'll never die, I hope we'll never die, I hope we'll never dieCross my heart
Cross my heart
Cross my heart
