Strong Anything

Katrina Elam

Oh, I love the rain when it's really coming down
When it howls, when it moans, when it sings
I'll probably catch my death but I'll die happy and wet
'Cause I love strong anything
Oh, I like my coffee black, my whiskey straight up
I don't need no silver cup to drink
I wanna taste life now so don't water it down
I love strong anything
'Cause I won't settle for anything less
And I cry out with my every breath
For joy, for pain, whatever life will bring
Give me strong anything
I wanna lover who is tough tough enough to stand up to me
And let the truth like freedom ring
'Cause riding down the road I wanna know that my soul mate
Loves strong anything
No, you don't need to part the sea or burn a bush for me

My faith has found its wings
Any God given desire to reach higher and higher
For strong anything
'Cause I won't settle for anything less
And I cry out with my every breath
For joy, for pain, whatever life will bring
Give me strong anything
Hey give it to me strong, yeah
I love the rain when it's really coming down
When it howls, when it moans, when it sings
Yes, I'll probably catch my death but I'll die happy and wet
'Cause I love strong anything
Oh strong anything
Give me strong anything
Give me strong anything
Give me strong
