Gone

Esthero

(featuring Cee-Lo Green)So why would you stay if its killing us both just to be here?
There's no more room to grow and you won't find yourself 'till you leave me.
It's a beautiful world outside these walls, and I love you too much to hold you down with my light shine..... and its blinding you...so G'on....get away.....leave me be 'cause I dont wanna see your face around here.So don't complicate it, I don't have it in me to hate you.
I was there to be your freedom.
I just want to be your faerie.
And I try to teach you, but I can only stay for one more day then I am....
Gone....get away....leave me be cause I don't wanna see your face around here. (repeat)There ain't nothing here for you if you stay.
And its so hard to hear myself say go away
instead of baby please stay just one more day I barely have the strength to leave you and you don't wanna be with me So go on (just get gone) and leave me alone...cee-lo: that isn't true girl, how could you say what you not mean?
oh we used to have such a hot thing and I just cant go anywhere and be not seen but for the love of you theres places I have stopped being and don't make me start about the sweets and all the shopping I mean God I even went out and got the ring
And its no cliche Love is blind its in you Literally- stop seeing But when you truly love someone, you wouldn't be shamed
And if I did not see you there, girl, I wouldn't have came You must think i've got some strong shoulders 'cause thats where keep putting the blame Whoever said fucked up your head Talking bout if you love somebody enough that you wouldn't have pain.
