

Heartbroken, In Disrepair

Dan Auerbach

There is no light, there is no charm
All my belongings, I hold in one arm
Under the bridge, asleep in the shade
All of the terrible choices that I made Searching for light, gasping for air
Heartbroken, in disrepair God may forgive me, but thats not enough
Cause I gotta live with myself, 'till Im dust
Just walk on by, if we pass on the street
Sometimes in battle, its best to retreat Searching for light, gasping for air
Heartbroken, in disrepair
