Fever Dream

Loggins & Messina

Stand back and see if they circle
Watching for signs from the sky
And we stand here, unaided, dumbfounded, frightened, fearful of the night
In the early rains of the dawn
In the early rains of the dawn For the early rain

Wonderment pours from our faces
Thunder is born in our eyes
And we see them â€“ four horsemen â€“ last judgment
Lord Apocalypse is nigh
In the early rains of the dawn

Too late to look toward tomorrow
Awaiting your hand in farewell
And we stand here, unaided â€”
Dumbfounded- waiting in each otherâ€™s arms
For the early rains of the dawn
