

Change Your World

Darlene Zschech

Ooo, I'd be in the hall of fame
The mere mentioning of your name
If they knew I love you
The way that I did
And kissing couldn't be a shame
When you love someone
And falling in love there's no blame
When it's all said and done
And I never knew
About this thing, yeah
'Cause there were no clues
Oh, what a shame
Oh, when you stop
And start falling in love
It changes your whole world
Turns you upside down
I never knew
(Oh, I never knew)
About real love
(Real love)
It changes your whole
(Turns your world upside down)
I must admit I stand accused
Of falling in love
Long before you said hello
And I said I do
(I do, I do)
It was all new to me
An unfamiliar world
A beauty unknown to man
And a cure for the blues
And I never knew
About this thing, yeah
And, oh, there were no clues
Oh, oh, what a shame
Oh, when you stop
(Oh, oh, when you stop)
And start falling in love
(Start falling in love)

It changes your whole world
(Turns you upside down)
I never knew
(Say, I never knew)
About real love
(Can?t you see I never knew about real love)
It changes your whole
(Yes, it does, oh yes, it does)
Turns your world upside down
(Turns your world upside down)
Change my whole world
(Oh)
