Scream

Primal Fear

you look into the mirror and see the walk of life the flame in your hearts still burnin - no one can change that always been a type of winner no matter if life treats you hard never give in no surrender leading - succeedingyou can take it all just go and break the wall go on make your dreams come true cause in the darkest night you see a light so bright and it is shining just for youscream - show the world youre right scream even if it hurts scream it will last forever scream like its now or neverscream theres a goal in sight scream cause your heart still burns
scream it will last forever
scream like its now or neveryou never saw the reason in doing what they say its time to go your own way now and forever you never were afraid to carry responsibility no living at a venture - deeds instead wordsyou can take it all
just go and break the wall
go on make your dreams come true
cause in the darkest night
you see a light so bright
and it is shining just for youscream - show the world youre right
scream even if it hurts
scream it will last forever
scream like its now or neverscream theres a goal in sight
scream cause your heart still burns
scream it will last forever
scream like its now or neverinstructions foreordination just laws and paragraphs prohibitions politicians lies and infidelity

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/