

Follow You

Mystery Skulls

I woke up
Where'd you go, 'cause, baby, I'm ready?
Everything that you know
Tell me 'cause, baby, I'm ready 'Cause there's no place you could go that I wouldn't follow you
There ain't no place you could go that I wouldn't follow you, oh
You can't hide from my love, baby
'Cause you can't hide from my love, oh
'Cause there's no place you could go that I wouldn't follow you, oh I woke up, where'd you going to?
Yes baby, I'm ready
And I won't miss a single thing with you, yes baby I'm ready
'Cause there's no place you could go that I wouldn't follow you
There ain't no place you could go that I wouldn't follow you, oh
You can't hide from my love, baby
'Cause you can't hide from my love, oh
'Cause there's no place you could go that I wouldn't follow you, oh It's like I've been here before
Maybe this time somethings different
It's like I've been here before
Maybe this time somethings different
It's you 'Cause there's no place you could go that I wouldn't follow you
There ain't no place you could go that I wouldn't follow you, oh
You can't hide from my love, baby
'Cause you can't hide from my love, oh
'Cause there's no place you could go that I wouldn't follow you, oh
'Cause you can't hide from my love, baby
You can't hide from my love, oh
'Cause you can't hide from my love, baby
You can't hide from my love
