Class Act

James Hunter

I could swear that your new love
Was once a friend of mine
You'll make the same kinda fool of, him in time
You're a real class act
Baby you're a real class act
Anyone ever tell you that?

You wrote me that you'd love me 'til the day you die
You changed your mind before the ink was dry
You're a real class act
Baby you're a real class act
Anyone ever told you that?

Right from the start I had a feelin'
Lookin' back I should have known
When it comes to double dealin'
Baby you're in a class of your own'

If lying and cheating
Was any kind of crime
A hundred years from now
You'd still be doin' time

You're a real class act
Baby you're a real class act
Anyone ever told you that?
Mmm...mmm...mm
You're a real class act
Baby you're a real class act
Anyone ever told you that?

Baby you're a real class act
Anyone ever told you that?

Right from the start I had a feelin'
Lookin' back I should have known
When it comes to double dealin'
Baby you're in a class of your own'

If lying and cheating

Was any kind of crime
A hundred years from now
You'd still be doin' time

Baby you're a real class act
Anyone ever told you that?
Mmm...yeah
