Killing Time

Triumph

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Hanging out on the corner
He's got no place to go
She sits in an empty bedroom
Playing the radioEveryday regretting
All the things never tried
Every day they're dyin'
Just a little bit more insideAll the lonely people
Waiting all their lives
They're empty and they're aching
You can see it in their eyesTime is slipping away
It's just passing them by
And they're wondering why but it's goneGone forever my friend
And it won't come again
So don't try to pretend you feel fine
Killing time, killing time, ohYou feel it's now or never
But the words don't seem to come
The fabric of your dreams
Starts to come undoneYou realize it's over
Before it has begun
You're reaching for something special
But that someone never comesYou're on your own now
But you're living out a lie
This killing time is wasting you
I can see it in your eyesTime is slipping away
It's just passing them by
You're wondering why but it's goneGone forever my friend
And it won't come again
So don't try to pretend you feel fine
Killing time, killing timeThe time we waste on hate
Full of anger and jealousy
The times we act so cruel
All the times you turned on meAll those lonely yesterdays

When we were killing time
I needed you more than ever
Couldn't you see it in my eyes?Time was slipping away
Passing us by, now I could cry 'cause it's gone
Gone forever my friend and it won't come again
It's moved on and left us behindTime is slipping away
It's just passing them by
They're wondering why but it's goneGone forever my friend
And it won't come again
So don't try to pretend you feel fine
Killing time, killing time, time
