Rock 'N' Roll Mercenaries

Meat Loaf

Talking, talking wealth, talking money, talking power
Talking horses, talking fun, talking self, talking power
Talking power, talking power and talking power
Money is power, power is fameTalking about rock 'n' roll mercenaries
Soldiers of fortune by some other name
I'm talking about rock 'n' roll mercenaries
Money is power, an' power is fameEverything you pay to hear just listen
Everything to catch your ear just listen
Whatever it takes, they're ready to sell
Anything and everything they do it themselvesTalking about rock 'n' roll mercenaries
Soldiers of fortune by some other name
I'm talking about rock 'n' roll mercenaries
Money is power, an' power is fameYoung are the victims so easily swayed
As some given are poisoned, all continuous placed
Our conscience is a load, so heavy to carry
For a rock 'n' roll mercenaryTalking about rock 'n' roll mercenaries
Soldiers of fortune by some other name
I'm talking about rock 'n' roll mercenaries
Money is power, an' power is fameTalking, talking, talking
Talking, talking, talking
Talking, talking, talkingIt starts with a game, see how they play
Till all of the laughter is faded away
It's not for the song, it's not for the love
It's just for the gold and there's never enough
Never enoughTalking about rock 'n' roll mercenaries
Soldiers of fortune by some other name
I'm talking about rock 'n' roll mercenaries
Money is power, an' power is fameIt's not for the song, it's not for the love
It's just for the gold, it's never enoughTalking about rock 'n' roll mercenaries
Soldiers of fortune by some other name
I'm talking about rock 'n' roll mercenaries
Money is power, an' power is fameRock 'n' roll mercenaries
Talking, talking, talking
Talking, talking, talking
Talking, talking, talking
Talking, talking, talking
Rock 'n' roll mercenaries oh
Talking about

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/