Dark Fate of Atlantis

Luca Turilli's Rhapsody

Thousands of years ago
At the limits of our world
A new kingdom rose on water
A new golden age for allHuman minds or entities
Sons of astral infinity
But for sure the great Poseidon
Found his people and his throneOld world
To you we all belonged
Old world
The stars announced your fall
Ignotum fatumMonumental growth
Breaking rules of history
The lost continent was legend
Soon the legend became mythPower, strength, prosperity
Once too close to divinity
Until water became fire
And swallowed all its loreOld world
The Icarus last fault
Old world
Your fate lives on and on
Ignotum fatumDark mantis
Dark fate of atlantis
At the gates of the timeless dimension
Dwell the ghost of a myth not forgotten
Kept by the sirens
And their infinite cry
The one surviving the ocean's might
Dark mantis
Dark fate of atlantis
At the gates of the timeless dimension
Dwell the ghost of a myth not forgotten
Kept by the sealord
And their infinite force
The one surviving the god's remorseVita e morte
In quellumana vis
Che vibra ed arde
Vivida nei secoliOld world
To you we all belonged
Old world

The stars announced your fall
Ignotum fatumDark mantis
Dark fate of atlantis
At the gates of the timeless dimension
Dwell the ghost of a myth not forgotten
Kept by the sirens
Dark mantis
Kept by the sealord
The one surviving the god's remorse
