

Greedy World

RF7

Cheat the liars
deceive the trust Only power is stronger then lust
We walk the planet
like we own the place Everyday we seem to raise the stakes

Count the bodies
count the souls
A million heads
on a million poles Answer the question and the problem dies Push down the people and the people rise

Greedy place this world we live
No where else could we be so big Greedy place this world we live
Lot of shit from a little fig

Seems so redundant
here we go again Doesn't take much to fuck a friend
Power and greed
break all the rules Born to control
a world of fools

All through time
the stories are the same Human nature
must be to blame What you've got is what I want Something else

for me to flaunt

Greedy place this world we live
No where else could we be so big
Greedy place this world we live
Lot of shit from a little fig
