

Young Hearts

Cappadonna

You left me here alone with a shine
Our hearts were strong but I couldn't find
My world alone how could I break my home
Still I doubted you and still your strength Enchanted me you was the father to my child
And a man to me now I'm sung of strong hearts
Run free run free young hearts
Young hearts run free, run free young hearts Girlfriend, what you did was wrong?
Even though the love was strong
You moved on, never had faith in the Don
You was safe with the Don and then you walked out A broken house, a broken heart
Cry for my part, we had a plan
We was woman and man, the hourglass
Held the sand, I held you like contraband But you didn't understand when the four devils
Came inside of your life that night
We argued and fight, you knew it wasn't right
Fucked up our life, my thoughts come stronger Every ounce, it's not my fault
That you wanted to bounce, now you tellin' me
That you cleaned up your act, beep me every time
But I never call back, that's how I felt When you was makin' me crack
Me leave wifey for you?
I'm crying
I'm crying Young hearts, run free
Run free, young hearts
Young hearts, run free

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>