

Your Ghost

New Years Day

A shallow grave
Where you're buried underneath
But don't drag me with you A mistake
That's been crawling at my skin
And I can't dig you out Is it wrong
That I question my self control? Your ghost
Stands between what I know
And what I'm missing
Something isn't right
I've been wasting so much god damn time
Put me
Out of all my misery
Pull the trigger
Let me know what's real
So I can start again and learn to feel I fought so hard
To push away all these tempting flaws
It's too late to conjure them again
What held me back in the end
The fear of never knowing what's ahead I'm sick of the disappointment The bitterness is overwhelming
And nothings gonna change around me
If i don't get rid of you I wanna shove the wicked words you told me
Down your fucking throat and let it sink in Kill off what's left of you
Your ghost
Stands between what I know
And what I'm missing
Something isn't right
I've been wasting so much god damn time Put me
Out of all my misery
Pull the trigger
Let me know what's real
So I can start again and learn to feel So unfortunate it comes to this
And i played my part
Don't waste your breath
With selfishness
You've done enough harm Your ghost
Stands between what I know
And what I'm missing
Something isn't right

No something isn't right Your ghost
Stands between what I know
And what I'm missing
Something isn't right
I've been wasting so much god damn time Put me
Out of all my misery
Pull the trigger
So I can start again and learn to feel (Start again and learn to feel)
Start again and learn
