Night Moves

Lately I'm just an animal trapped out in my cage
Waiting for my handler to release me just for one day
Calmly I've been patient, for I know it's just their game
But lately I'm just an animal
Waiting for the lights to fade And now tonight you're mine
And now tonight you're mine
And now tonight, you're mine that you know
I feel it all inside, but oh it's just not right
To wait another
To wait another day
Baby I'm just an animal
Some freak in a cage
And lately your something beautiful
Something that's yet to be tamed Well I feel it's been gone so long
Don't seem to attain
(With a touch of lust and a touch of tear)
Wandering well ensued
As the moments they're through
I withdrew Undress, undress you're lines
We don't get along, get along in time Lately, I'm just an animal trapped out in your cage
And baby you're something beautiful
You're something that's yet to be tamed
Get along
Get along in time
You just cast my dues
Tangle me in clues I want to love you in mind
