Big Talk

That Mitchell & Webb Sound

Yea, street fightin' is lookin' for trouble
If you open your mouth, you're bound to rumble
Johnny looks tough, he's frozen the eyes
He keeps his mouth shut, he don't tell no liesJohnny went out last night, got in a barroom fight
Embarrassed a jealous man in front of his cheating wife
The man said,"Tonight you won
But I'll tell you son, this one's far from over"Johnny said
"Big talk is just talk unless
Unless your backin' it up
Big talk is cheap talk is
Only words unless you're backin' it up"An' I don't know why, some men lay down and die
Don't they believe in what they're sayin'?
You should get on your feet, believe you can't be beat
Remember talk is only playin'Big talk is just talk unless
Unless your're backin' it up
Big talk is cheap talk is
Only words unless you're backin' it upI remember what my old man used to say
Never give up and run
Don't let the talkin' breeze blow you away
Always remember, stick to your gunsBig talk is lookin' for trouble
If you open your mouth, you better be ready to rumbleBig talk is just talk unless
Unless your backin' it up
Big talk is cheap talk is
Only words unless you're backin' it upI say, big talk is just talk unless
Unless your backin' it up
Big talk is cheap talk is
Only words unless you're backin' it upWe all say, big talk is just talk unless
Unless your're backin' it up
Oh, we're backin' it up, we're backin' it up, yea
