Til We Meet Again

Dakota Moon

We talked for hours, trying to figure it out
Running out of things to say
Wish I could tell you, I was going to stay
You know it's getting lateNow's the time, please don't cry
But we've got to let it go
Deep inside we both know why
We've been through this beforeI don't want to have to say goodbye tonight
So til we meet again
Maybe another place, another timeI don't know when
But I'll think of you till then
Til we meet again, againI know we promised, we'd never be here
That we'd never come to this
We tried so hard, as hard as we could
But somehow we just missedSo now's the time, baby, please don't cry
But we've got to let it go
Oh, deep inside, we both know why
We've been through this beforeI don't want to have to say goodbye tonight
So til we meet again
Maybe another place, another timeI don't know when
But I'll think of you till then
Til we meet againWe've been through this beforeI don't want to have to say goodbye tonight
So til we meet again
Maybe another place, another timeI don't know when
But I'll think of you till then
Til we meet again
But I'll think of you till then
Til we meet again
