

Same Old Stars

Kingdom Come

I'm sitting here, in my lighthouse
Breaking waves making soothing sounds
Wondering what I'm here for Memories coming up ashoreStars
Shining through the endless dark
It doesn't matter where you are
We're looking at the same old stars
Hollywood, candy playground
Lot's of hope, being kicked around
St. Petersburg, got a great vibe
Hungry hearts, with a lovely smileStars
Shining through the endless dark
It doesn't matter where you are
We're looking at the same old starsGermany, solid home ground
History, being lost and found
Old Japan, land of honor
Had no time, wanting to get closer
