

Country Comfort

Juice Newton

Soon, the pines will be falling everywhere
As village children fight each other for their share
And the 6:09 goes roaring past the creek
As Deacon Lee prepares a sermon for next week I saw grandma yesterday down at the store
Well, she's really doing fine for eighty-four
And she asked me if sometime I could fix her barn
Poor old girl, she needs a hand around the farm And it's good old country comfort in my bones
It's the sweetest sound these ears have ever known
It's just an old-fashioned feeling fully-grown
Country comfort in a heart that's going back home Down at the well, they've got a new machine
The poor man says it'll cut man power by fifteen
"Hey, but that ain't natural," old Clay would say
You see, he's a horse-drawn man until his dying day And it's good old country comfort in my bones
It's the sweetest sound these ears have ever known
It's just an old-fashioned feeling fully-grown
Country comfort in a heart that's going back home And it's good old country comfort in my bones
It's the sweetest sound these ears have ever known
It's just an old-fashioned feeling fully-grown
Country comfort in a heart that's going back home And it's good old country comfort in my bones
It's the sweetest sound these ears have ever known
It's just an old-fashioned feeling fully-grown
Country comfort in a heart that's going back home
Country comfort in a heart that's going back home

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>