

Hype Me Up (feat. Supa Bwe)

Taylor Bennett

[Intro: Taylor Bennett]

Oh, oh

Yeah[Chorus: Taylor Bennett]

My mirror gon' feel like a window when your door knocks
My momma told me don't go slippin' when that stove's hot
I know I'm wifey-ed up, but my friends gon' hype me up (yeah)
And even though I might be took, my friends gon' hype me up[Verse 1: Taylor Bennett]

I told a lie to myself and said I was being patient

Playing sick patient, waiting waiting

The waiting game is so tired, and when you really hatin'

You just looking for something or someone that can maybe aid it

You're 45 minutes away but that plane didn't make it

So now you lookin' in the mirror like This nigga famous

But you used to sleep over at my house when he was in the basement

And now my texts ain't goin' through, this nigga must be playin'

I used to answer all the time and always call off

This nigga did shit to me that I ain't tell my moms about

Stayed down for the come up and got drewed out

Believed in you when no one had your back, I had my arms out

Now you got a new bitch, I swear you goin' all out

Now you not wanting to talk no more, but not fall out

And every time we get to talk, you always talk, don't call back

And every time we get a chance to meet it's for a fall back

[Chorus: Taylor Bennett]

My mirror gon' feel like a window when your door knocks

My momma told me don't go slippin' when that stove's hot

I know I'm wifey-ed up, but my friends gon' hype me up (yeah)

And even though I might be took, my friends gon' hype me up[Verse 2: Supa Bwe]

Rollin' on the stick gears

Smokin' on hay

So drunk, when I move I sway

[?], but I stay [?]

I close mine and I fade away

Perky got me itchy, I'm wide awake

I don't mind if she leave or stay

Do you, do you, do you, do you want to

Be the, be the, be the, be the one to

Show me what really is love

[Chorus: Taylor Bennett]

My mirror gon' feel like a window when your door knocks
My mamma told me don't go slippin' when that stove's hot
I know I'm wifey-ed up, but my friends gon' hype me up (yeah)
And even though I might be took, my friends gon' hype me up
