

Everybody Got Soul

Uncle Lucius

Believe it or not
I ain't much different than you
I've got a head on my shoulders
And feet in my shoes for walking
Down the same old road
And the air that you breathe is the fuel that you need
To keep the whole thing running
Hey, that's just like me

Sheer trumps and woes
Now our shape and our color and our size
Ain't the same
But the substance in the middle only got one name

I got soul
You got soul
We all got soul
Everybody got soul

Seen up, I've seen down
I've seen the spaces between
I felt the sorrow of lost
And the joy of reverie
I hope you empathize
I heard about the way things are and how they oughta be
You know the only one controlling my future is me

My favorite truth of the lies
So truth be told
We all come from a place
No matter what you sign your creed or your race

I got soul
You got soul
We all got soul
Everybody got soul

Everybody got (soul)
Everybody got (soul)

Everybody got soul

Yeah we all got (soul)
I said they all got (soul)
Everybody got soul

I said they all got (soul)
You know we all got (soul)
Everybody got soul
