

Can't Sing Straight

Teddy Thompson

I been drinking so much I can't sing straight
I gotta hope that it's not too late
To say the only thing that I've ever had
Was here in my own two handsMaybe it's good, maybe it's fine
Maybe I'll learn to walk the lineIt's been a very short run I must object
You're not really gonna take it away just yet
I need ten more years to get to good
I just did what I thought I could get away withMaybe it's good, maybe it's fine
Maybe I'll learn to walk the lineI was an ugly kid with an ugly name
Never had much of a wild side to tame
But I grew up pretty tall and fine
I just wanted to have my time
Have some funMaybe it's good, maybe it's fine
Maybe I'll learn to walk the lineGive me one more chance to get things right
I wanna put it back the way it was overnight
But a change of ways seems a bit too much
I don't really want to change my life as suchMaybe it's good, maybe it's fine
Maybe I'll learn to walk the line
Maybe it's fine, maybe it's good
Maybe it's message understoodMaybe it's good, maybe it's fine
Maybe I'll learn to walk the line

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlrics.com/>