Love Like That

Daniel Beck

One look from you blows me away,
Just one word is all it takes.
When my courage disappears,
In the shadow of my fears,
I am carried by your strength.

When the man I want to be,
Standing just beyond my reach,
The power in your touch,
it gently lifts me up.
Then bring me to my knees.

How to do you love like that?
How do you give so selflessly?
Your faith in me just seems to come so easily.
It amazes me, how it changes me.
How to do you love like that?

When I'm dancing on the edge,
You reach out and pull me in
When I'm drifting unaware
You always find me there.
And rescue me again.

How to do you love like that?
How do you give so selflessly?
Your faith in me just seems to come so easily.
It amazes me, how it changes me.
How to do you love like that?

I live everyday,
to learn to love you that way.

How do you give so selflessly?
Your faith in me just seems to come so easily.
It amazes me, how it changes me.
How to do you love like that?
I wanna love, like that!
