Be Yourself

Joi Cardwell

First you let go
Make believe
Release all your
Woes and be free
From life
Follow your heart to a place that is safe
A way to your soul
Your own sacred space
And be yourselfBe the moon
Be the stars
Be whatever you are
Be the right
Be the might
Be of hope joy and light
But
Be YourselfTake time to know
And to see
Sort through
The past be relieved
Right now
Right now
Let the unknow n take control
Shape your fate
Go with your will
Cause its never to late
To be
YourselfBe the moon
Be the stars
Be whatever you are
Be the right
Be the might
Be of hope joy and light
But
Be Yourself
