Open Your Eyes

Bobby Caldwell

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I see you, in a lonely place
How can you be so lost
You're still regretting the love you left, left behind
Oh darling, I've seen you go through a change
Sitting alone each night
Are you expecting to find a love, love that's rightDarling open your eyes
Let me show you the light
Girl you'll never find a love that's right
Darling open your eyes
Let me show you the light
Girl you think you're so wiseThere are times, when you'll need someone
I will be by your side
I'll take my chances before they pass, pass me by
Oh darlin, there is a light that shines, special for you and me
You need to look at the other side
You'll agreeDarling open your eyes
Let me show you the light
You may never find a love that's right
Darling open your eyes
Let me show you the light
You may never find a love that's right
Darling open your eyes
Let me show you the light
You may never find a love that's right
Darling open your eyes
Let me show you the light
Girl you think you're so wise
You may never find a love that's right
