Self Destructive

Eye Empire

I realize my demise is clearly tied to the choices that are made today
Think twice and analize, that path outside is leading you the wrong way Leading me the wrong wayWhy am I self destructive?
My concience calls me out
I am so self destructive.
My concience calls me outLook in and begin too see the trend
This pattern of behaviour that kills what is right in our lives
Destroying what is sacred
I need to take control,
I need to let it goWhy do I put you through this?
My mind is rendered useless
Will all this end in tragedy?
