Apple Candy

Ben Lee

I wanna know what he knows
I wanna feel what he felt
I wanna go where he's beenI wanna know what he knows
I wanna hear your secrets
I want you and I want him'Cos you smell like apple candy
And we're singing Hallelujah
And the edge in your affection broke my skinBut I wanna know what he knows
I wanna touch what he touched
Call me by his name'Cos I know you made a promise
And told him he's your lover
Make me feel the same'Cos you smell like apple candy
And we're singing Hallelujah
And I'm feeling so much younger than my yearsWell I wanna know what he knows
And I wanna go where he's been
I want you and I want himSo you said, "Go find some trouble"
And you would do the same
And we opened up our hearts and we could changeBut you smell like apple candy
And we're singing Hallelujah
And you smell like apple candy
And we're singing HallelujahI wanna know what he knows
I wanna feel what he felt
I wanna touch what he touched
I wanna go where he's been
I want you and I want him
