Second Wind

Nick Carter

I woke naked with my head in the trunk
A tattoo on my chest I guess I was drunk
Still tasting liquor on the tip of my tongue
I don't remember, but I guess it was funMy first real problems really tear me apart
I broke my PlayStation and now it won't start
My vegan girlfriend only feeds me quinoa
I double parked against someone keyed my carOh baby, let's sail away
(Gotta get away, gotta get away)
Oh baby, let's sail away
(Gotta get away, gotta get away)Don't let your heart bleed out
Just let the sun light in
That's to light your clouds
I'm on my way again
No you can't knock me down, I got my second wind
Don't let your heart bleed out
Just let the sun light in
I got my second wind, I got my second windYou'll find the one you're loving without a doubt
You buy her a ring so you can keep her around
She meets your mama and the crazy comes out
Before you know it, you get kicked out your houseOh baby, let's sail away
(Gotta get away, gotta get away)
Oh baby, let's sail away
(Gotta get away, gotta get away)Don't let your heart bleed out
Just let the sun light in
That's to light your clouds
I'm on my way again
No you can't knock me down, I got my second wind
