

Prayer for an Angel

Abra Moore

Don't tie the string so tight
She tried
she'll never slip away from you
A broken wing don't fly A kiss, a kiss to say goodbye
To a world you used to know I watch you chase her down Away from you But, can you hear her cry Hope, hope is all you've got You've forgotten how to find your way Over you Don't tie the string so tight
she'll never slip away from you
She tried
A broken wing don't fly.
