Queen Bee

Neil Halstead

Did you see her running down the hill
Away from love, away from me?
Oh Queen Marie, you always were the one
Who had the time to say noWhat did you say? Hey, hey, girl
What did you say? Hey, hey, girl
What did you say? Hey, hey, girlYou ask me where the angels live
Look girl, I suppose they always hang in bars
Talking to the crazy folk and dancing
With the devils in their bright new clothesWhat did you say? Hey, hey, girl
What did you say? Hey, hey, girl
What did you say? Hey, hey, girlYeah, see you some time
Yeah, see you some time
Yeah, see you some timeFrom London to the Ireland coast
This is the land I love, I love the most
You see me underneath the light
Or on the ground or in a fight
Dont pass me byWhat did you say? Hey, hey, girl
What did you say? Hey, hey, girl
What did you say? Hey, hey, girlYeah, see you some time
Yeah, see you some time
Yeah, see you some time
